Heros for the Month of May

This month, we will be commemorating the birth of our historical leader, el-Hajj Malik el-Shabazz. He was born Malcolm Little in Omaha, Nebraska on May 19, 1925. His father was an organizer in Marcus Garvey's movement. Malcolm became the national spokesman for the Nation of Islam by 1960. By 1964 he had built a mighty link between Africans throughout the world through his fiery, charismatic speeches of truth and his founding of the Organization of Afro-American Unity, OAU. He was assassinated February 21, 1965.

We will also be celebrating the birthday of a present day Black leader, Minister Louis Farrakhan, born May 11, 1933. Minister Farrakhan is the leader of the Nation of Islam and has fostered cooperative relations among all religions of African People to uphold unity among Black people. He is the co-organizer of the Million Man March and is a charismatic speaker for African Americans in the 90's.

Happy Birthday

Happy Mother's Day!

Fingerprints, fingerprints everywhere!
On the windows and walls, even the chair!
You wipe them and scrub them and wash them away,
But on this card they are here to stay!
I Love You Mom! Happy Mother's Day!
